"I don't know of another non-profit in Collin County, or frankly anywhere else, where you get to advocate on behalf of a kid, and, I'm not exaggerating at all, change the trajectory of their life. It's just amazing."

-Judge John R. Roach Jr. 296th District Court

MISSION

CASA of Collin County promotes and protects the best interests of children who have been abused or neglected by training volunteer advocates to improve the child's quality of life and serves as their voice within the court system to ensure they are placed in a safe, permanent and loving home.

VISION

All children deserve a safe and loving forever home, free from abuse or neglect.

EMPOWER

CASA volunteer Mary was assigned to Jason when he experienced a disrupted adoption. Throughout Jason's life he has experienced significant trauma and rejection, through numerous failed placements. His CASA Mary knew she needed to help EMPOWER him explore more intensive and specific treatment services. He was admitted to a long term addiction program that he successfully completed and graduated the program. His behavior completely changed, he was adopted at the age of 18 by his foster family. His CASA Mary help EMPOWER him during his treatment and help him find his voice again.

THANK YOU

to all of our 2022 donors

We are grateful for our community of CASA supporters who continue to go above and beyond to celebrate our children and families. We could not do this important work without your generous support.
