HISTORY

We, at the Southern University Law Center (SULC), are pleased that you have chosen us to begin preparation for your legal career. The recent catalog is a valuable resource to guide you through your matriculation at the Southern University Law Center. It includes a wealth of information about our admissions requirements, tuition and fees, degree course requirements, financial aid, policies and procedures, as well as an introduction to a variety of course materials. In addition, you will find information about our dedicated law faculty and staff.

These courses will provide and equip you with the intellectual knowledge and skills necessary to secure your juris doctorate and bar admission. We know that your time spent here at SULC will prepare you for leadership in the legal arena and the community at large. The SULC faculty and staff have made a commitment to provide you with encouragement, wise counsel and valuable mentoring throughout your law school experience. It is important that you see the time you will spend here at SULC as the most important investment you will ever make in your legal career.

Since its inception in 1947, the law center has prided itself in its mission of providing access and opportunity to all people. We look forward to your joining in our fight against social injustice, for civil rights and the public interest. Again, we are delighted about your interest in SULC and we look forward to adding your name to the over 4,000 other alums who are now part of the legacy of the Southern University Law Center.

OPPORTUNITY OF ADVANCEMENT

Southern University Law Centers offers legal training to students in pursuit of the juris doctor degree. The Law Center maintains the goal of producing attorneys who are well prepared for entry into the legal profession. In attaining this goal, we have designed a curriculum that has given particular attention to Civil Law, as well as hands-on experience and application.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students beginning the study of law are admitted only in the fall semester. The following information and materials should be uploaded through your LSAC.org account:

- Formal Application: Application must be completed online at www.lzac.org. Application, along with official undergraduate transcript, personal statement, resume and two letters of recommendation, should be upload before the end of the fall semester of the year prior to admission, unless the deadline is extended.
- Application Fee: A $75 non-refundable application fee.
- Official Transcripts: Transcripts showing credits earned at a college or university.
- The Law School Admissions Test: All applicants are required to take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) prior to admission. Applicants can register for the test online through LSAC account or by telephone at (215)-968-1001 during business hours.
- Personal Statement: Your personal statement is an opportunity to present yourself as more than an LSAT score and GPA. The personal statement sets you apart from other candidates. It is also a sample of your ability to express thoughts clearly and cogently.
- Confirmation: Notification of the committee's decision will be mailed to the applicant and made accessible through online status checker.
- Immunization Policy: Admitted students must submit proof of immunization to the Law Center prior to registration in accordance with Louisiana Revised Statute 17:170.
- Seat Deposit: Applicants who have been admitted for admission must pay a $200 seat deposit to secure a seat in the incoming first-year class. The seat deposit amount is subject to change and is non-refundable.

FINANCING YOUR EDUCATION

Southern University Law Center (SULC) assists students in meeting the cost of a legal education through various financial aid programs. It is suggested that students pursue all sources available to obtain financial assistance.

The cost of attending Southern University Law Center (SULC) varies, depending upon a student's enrollment. Below are estimated costs for full-time and part-time law students. All awards must not exceed the cost of attendance budget.

Note: SULC adopts the Louisiana Association of Financial Aid Administrators averages and estimated cost for students in the State of Louisiana.

TESTIMONIALS

STUDENT

“I knew I needed [an environment] that would challenge me socially, politically, and spiritually. The Law Center gave me the chance to encounter people from different backgrounds, both socio-economic and political.”

ELIZABETH SMITH
ALUMNA
CLASS OF 2020

“My professors pushed me in a manner that made me discover strengths that I never knew I made.”

TESTIMONIALS

DR. ANTHONY B. CANADA

ALUMNI

CLASS OF 1987

“Being a lawyer leader is more about leadership than the practice of law.”

DELESO ALFORD

PROFESSOR OF LAW

“I desire to leave a ‘seriousness of purpose’ kind of impact [on my students]. With every encounter in the classroom, I have another opportunity to shape the next generation of legal professionals to become culturally competent while practicing cultural humility.”
